Joe Bartley said he felt "like a working man again"

A 91-year-old man who got a job as a waiter after placing an ad saying he was "dying of boredom" has hung up his apron for good.

"Expectation is the root of all

- Do you have a sense of how God is calling you to live?
- Are there expectations you are living under that prevent you from being all God calls you to be?
- Is God calling you to make any changes in how you think or what you do?
