

The extraordinary calling of ordinary people

Ruth

BBC Account Home News Sport Weather iPlayer

NEWS

Home | Prince Philip | Coronavirus | Brexit | UK | World | Business | Politics | Tech | Science | Health

Business | Your Money | Market Data | Companies | Economy | Global Car Industry | Business of Sport

'We need to reflect on why women still do most of the childcare'

By Nina Goswami
BBC reporter

18 March

Coronavirus pandemic

Carlene Jackson says that mums need dads to help out as equal

As the lockdown bites, it's women who are taking the strain

Gaby Hinsliff

Search The Guardian UK edition

The economics of coronavirus and the logistics of home-working are playing into some old gender inequalities

Support us Contribute Subscribe

INDEPENDENT TV CLIMATE FOOTBALL VOICES CULTURE PREMIUM INDY/LIFE INDYBEST INDY100 VOUCHERS

News > World > World Politics

Notion a 'woman's place' is in the home is back in an 'aggressive way', director of UN Women warns

Exclusive: 'Women go to places where they used to sell but are now going to beg' says Phumzile Mlambo-Ngcuka

Women's Correspondent | @mayaoppenheim | 4 days ago | 5 comments

Support us Contribute Subscribe

Mediterranean Sea

KINGDOM OF ISRAEL

★ Samaria

Shechem ○

○ Jaffa

○ Beit El

○ Jerash

○ Jericho

★ Jerusalem

○ Lachish

○ Bethlehem

○ Hebron

○ Beer sheba

○ Umomium

KINGDOM OF AMMON

★ Rabbath-Ammon

★ Dibon

KINGDOM OF MOAB

PHILISTINE KINGDOM OF STATES

○ Gaza

○ Ashdod

○ Ashkelon

ARABU TRIBES

ARAMEAN TRIBES

NABATU TRIBES

KINGDOM OF EDOM

-
- Then: famine, death and childlessness
 - Now: multiple tragedies still strike us

How different was Ruth's world to ours?

News > UK > Home News

 INDEPENDENT

London streets not safe for women or girls, admits Sadiq Khan

'It's really important people like me in positions of power and influence take steps to address that'

Jane Dalton | @JournoJane | Friday 12 March 2021 00:01 | 5 comments

Home | News | U.S. | Sport | TV&Showbiz | Australia | Femail | Health | Scie

Best Buys | Discounts

Latest Headlines | Covid-19 | Duke of Edinburgh | Royal Family | Boris Johnson | Meghan M

Most read

MailOnline

Schools urged to teach boys how to treat women and girls with respect on Britain's streets

- Respect for women and girls should be taught in classrooms, said Kit Malthouse
- Boys could learn how to treat women on the streets and in public as part of RSE
- His comments come as Britain continues to mourn the murder of Sarah Everard

The New York Times

THE INTERPRETER

After Sarah Everard's Killing, Women's Groups Want Change, Not More Policing

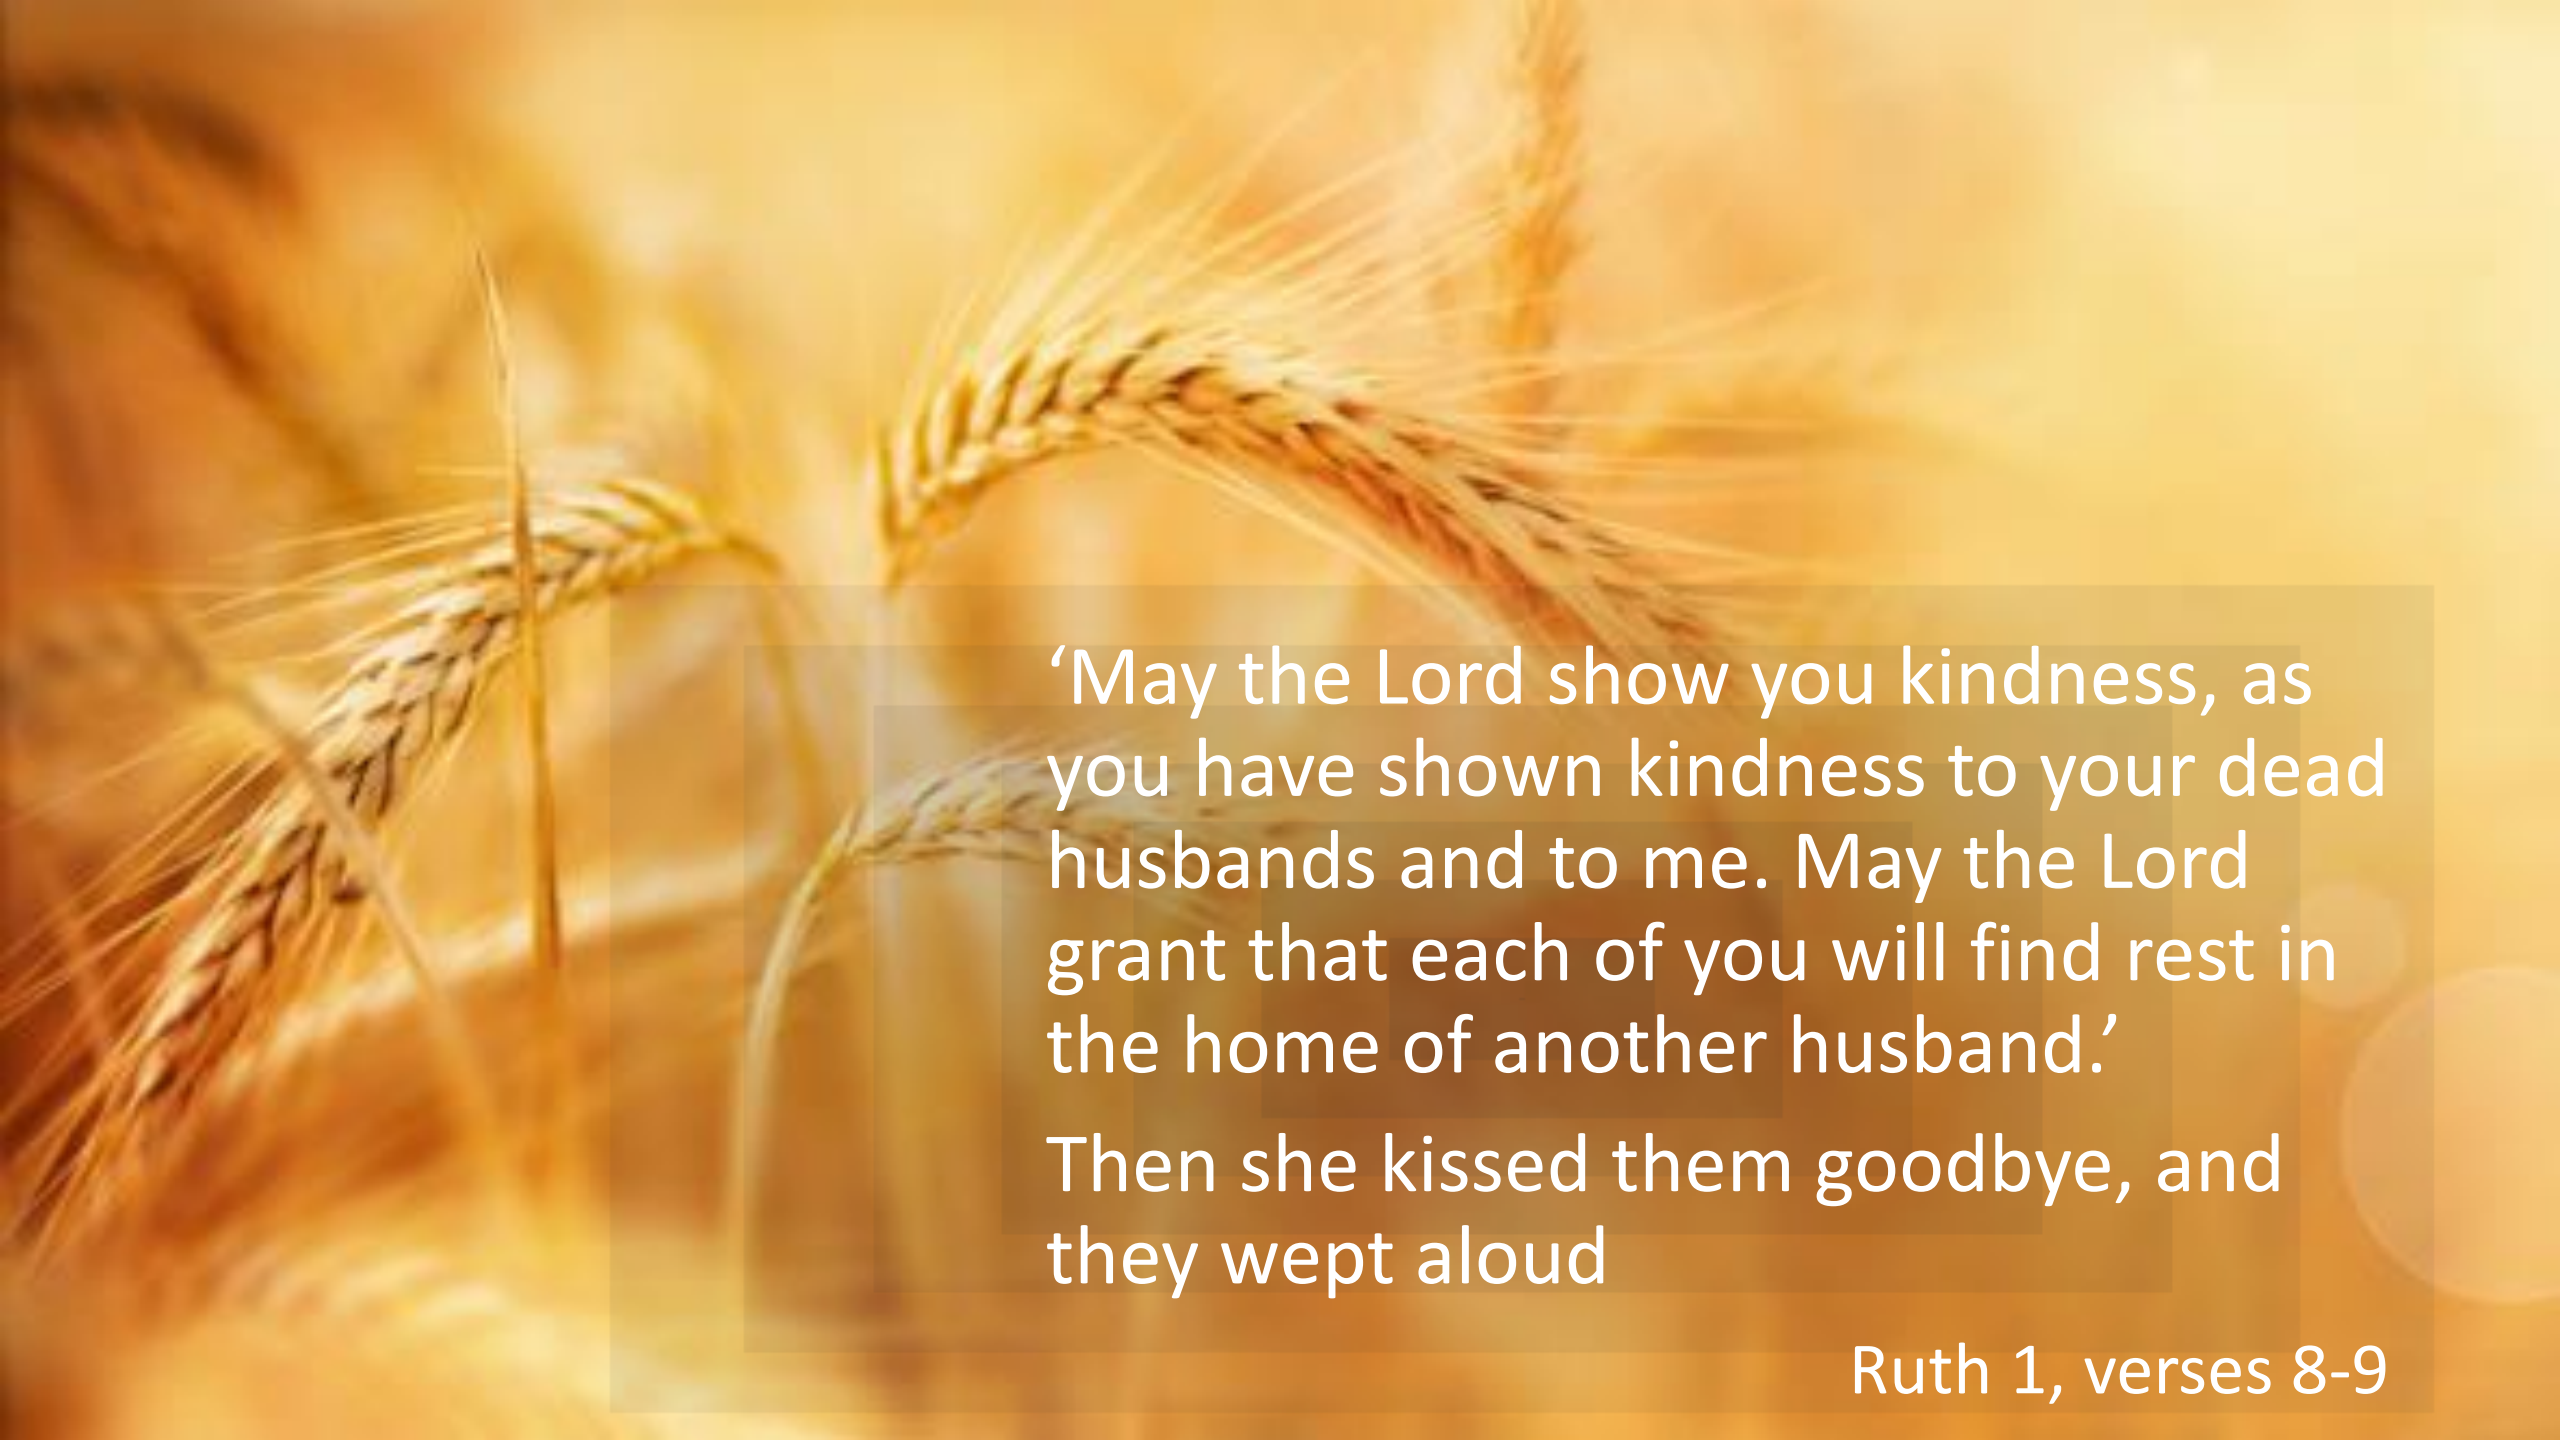

A rising movement in Britain asserts that the police are part of the problem and seeks recognition that violence against women must be addressed at the societal level.

Flowers and messages have been left for Sarah Everard at a temporary memorial in London. Mary Turner

How different was Ruth's world to ours?

‘May the Lord show you kindness, as you have shown kindness to your dead husbands and to me. May the Lord grant that each of you will find rest in the home of another husband.’

Then she kissed them goodbye, and they wept aloud

Ruth 1, verses 8-9

A close-up photograph of several golden wheat stalks, showing the intricate details of the grain heads and the fine hairs on the awns. The background is a soft, out-of-focus golden light, creating a warm and textured atmosphere. A semi-transparent rectangular text box is overlaid on the lower portion of the image.

Ordinary people ... living in difficult times

How different was Ruth's world to ours?

The extraordinary calling of ordinary people

Ruth